WINNIPEG

In presenting this our first directory of Winnipeg, we feel in duty bound to supply a sketch of the progress of the city which is now the wonder of the Continent of North America, and thus furnish some index to its marvelous growth. We say brief sketch, as published historical facts regarding Winnipeg are now so numerous and varied that anything more would be superfluous.

As early as 1812, a number of Scottish exiles, under the leadership of Thomas Douglas, Earl of Selkirk, settled in this vicinity, and about the same time the Hudson's Bay Company established a post in that part of the city which still bears the name of Point Douglass, in honor of the large hearted nobleman, who was the pioneer of emigration to the North-west. Such were the circumstances attending the birth of trade and civilized emigration in this, now rapidly progressing city, and as might be expected the progress of both was for over half a century very slow.

It is needless to follow a minute history of the Selkirk Settlement from its birth. Sufficient to say that with the exception of the murder of Governor Semple by North-western Fur Traders in 1816, and the restoration of order by British troops under Lord Selkirk, in the following year, no stirring events took place until 1826, when a flood of the Red River desolated the settlement, and swept away the Hudson Bay Post buildings. With the disappearance of this flood the building of Fort Garry at the confluence of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers was commenced, and most of the buildings of the old post remain to the present day.

As early as 1819, private mercantile enterprise had made its appearance, when Mr. A. McDermott, opened a small general store, which was the only trading institution outside of the Hudson's Bay Post, until 1848, when Mr. A. G. B. Bannatyne, who is still numbered among the most respected citizens of Winnipeg, opened a general merchandise store of considerable pretentions, the out-come of which is now the large wholesale grocery house of Bannatyne & Co.

Trading in those days was conducted under great difficulties owing to the want of transportation to and from the outer world, yet a few additions were made to the mercantile concerns of the then village of Fort Garry, and in 1862, when the steamer International made her first trip down the Red River to the Fort, about a dozen business institutions were in existence, and among the then struggling merchants were several that now rank among Winnipeg's most opulent citizens, such as Messrs. A. G. B. Banatyne, W. H. Lyon, W. C. Fonseca and John Higgins.

The history of the settlement from 1862 until 1879, was one of slow progress, and when in the latter year the miniature rebellion under Riel and O'Donoghue broke out, the outside world learnt more of the natural wealth of the Red River Country than had been made known in half a century. From the restoration of order by the troops under Sir Garnet Wolseley, in 1870 dates the rapid progress of the City of Winnipeg. In the fall of that year, the population outside of the military, numbered 215, according to a census taken, and in the month of December the first Manitoba Parliament of twenty-four members was elected.

From 1871 to 1874 the growth of Winnipeg astonished even its most sanguine friends, and in the latter year, when the city was incorporated, its population numbered about 3,700, while the value of property assessed within its limits reached $2.076,018. Two chartered banks were then doing business in the city, namely the Merchants', which had been established in 1872 under the management of Mr. D. McArthur; and the Ontario, established in 1874 under the management of Mr. George Brown. Eight steamboats were then plying upon the Red River to and from the city, and the business institutions of every description within the corporation limits numbered about 180.

In 1875 Winnipeg's population had reached nearly 5,000, and its assessed property a value of $2,763,714. In 1876 the figures were respectively 6,200, and $3,031,685, and the following year railway communication with the city was opened via the Canadian Pacific and St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba railways. Succeeding years only added to the city's rapid growth, and at close of 1881 the population numbered nearly 20,000 about 4,000 of whom were transient or floating. The volume of business done during that year represented a value of a little over $20,000,000 exclusive of real estate transactions. The number of business institutions was over 500, and the duty paying imports for the year had a value of $2,984,838.

The year 1882 has been one in which Winnipeg has safely, and without material injury passed through a severe trial, consequent upon the over speculative era of 1881.

WINNIPEG.

At the present date, (April 1st), the strictly business affairs of the city are in a safe and solid state, and progress which will not necessitate reaction has fairly set in. The manufacturing institutions of the city number over 170, and give employment to over 3,200 persons, male and female. There are three saw-mills with an annual capacity of over 30,000,000 feet cut; three flouring mills are in operation whose daily capacity agregates 1,200 barrels of flour. Three foundries with machine shops in connection, give employment to over 250 hands. Two steam furniture factories are in full blast, and over 60 institutions in the city employ steam power in connection with their business. Manufacturing institutions are springing up in quick succession, and the demand for their products is steadily on the increase.

As a wholesale centre, Winnipeg now ranks, probably, third in the Dominion, Montreal and Toronto being the only cities which are decidedly ahead in that particular. With the opening of this spring the wholesale houses of every description number over eighty, and the value of their sales during the past year agregate between $8,000.000 and $9,000,000. Their area of operations extends from the Lake Superior towns of Ontario on the east, to the base of the Rocky Mountains on the west, and from the International Boundary Line on the south to the far north towns of Prince Albert and Edmonton. Nearly one hundred commercial travellers travel over this immense area and represent Winnipeg houses, some of which in magnitude will bear comparison with the largest of old eastern cities.

The financial institutions of Winnipeg comprise branches from eight of the leading chartered banks of Canada, which, are supplemented by seven private banks, and agencies of eleven loan and investment companies. Capital from eastern and European sources has found its way into the city and surrounding country, and the volume of the same promises to keep steadily increasing.

Over 300 retail mercantile concerns are now in operation in Winnipeg, some of which are in furniture and fittings unsurpassed for magnificence in Canada, while the variety of goods to be secured is as extensive as in Montreal or Toronto, Every circumstance points to the city becoming a great trading centre of a vast and productive country.

It is unnecessary to say much about the hotels of Winnipeg. It is a fact beyond dispute, that no city in the universe of the same size possesses so many and so commodious homes for the travelling public and nowhere does a floating population take more advantage of these houses; fifteen houses in the city are capable of accomodating over 100 guests, and five can house comfortably over 150.

In the pages of this work will be found a complete guide to the city's public institutions, which comprise a well organized and effective police force under the superintendence of Chief Murray; a thoroughly equipped and competent paid Fire Brigade under Chief McRobie; a public hospital; well conducted and commodious public schools; several valuable educational institutions of a higher grade; well constructed and efficient water works; a service of street cars, and numerous other institutions which indicate a rapid advance towards the position of a great, populous and well ordered city.

The prospects of Winnipeg are at present as bright as those of any city on the American Continent, and in no way are these bright prospects more apparent than in a view of her well chosen location, and the position she occupies as the pivot of the great work of development that is now going on in the Canadian North-west. Her position at the junction of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers makes her the key to the great system of inland navigation which is steadily being developed throughout the North-west. She is the headquarters of the Canadian Pacific, Manitoba South-western and numerous lines now projected, while she is the objective point of almost every projected line of railway as yet talked of in the Canadian Prairie Land. To the westward the Canadian Pacific railway extends nearly 700 miles over the richest prairie lands in the world, and ere another year, the mineral treasures of the Rocky Mountains will be reached by the same line. The Portage Westbourne and North-western railway is already a valuable feeder to this main line of the C. P. R., and the South-western branch, and projected lines to Prince Albert, Edmonton and the Far North, will soon aid in swelling the volume of traffic along this main artery of travel between the Manitoba Capital and the Great North-west. To the south two lines of railway connect with lines through the United States, and supply channels for international commerce; while eastward the Canadian Pacific Railway extends to the shores of Lake Superior, and connects with a system of lake, canal and river navigation extending to the Atlantic seaboard. Situated thus, Winnipeg is centre of a great system of inland navigation through the richest agricultural country in the World, and the depot of a net-work of railways nearly 2,000 miles in length, and thus holds an infinite lease of her present position as the commercial and industrial queen of the GREAT NORTH-WEST.

COLLEGE OF ST. BONIFACE.

Established in 1818; incorporated as a College in 1871; affiliated to the University of Manitoba at the time of the latter's creation.

The foundation of the College was laid in the formation of a small class by the Rev. J. M. Provencher, in 1818. The class then met in the teacher's own residence. The present buildings have been erected by his Grace the Most Rev. Alex. Tache, D.D., O.M.I., Archbishop of St. Boniface, who is patron of the institution.

The new College, having four stories, is the most spacious educational building in the Province. It is lighted by gas, heated by hot water furnaces, and supplied by water-works of its own. The park of twenty-one acres, surrounding the college, forms a delightful play-ground for the students.

Course of Instruction.—In addition to an elementary education this institution offers special inducements in the higher branches to those desiring to complete the University course or to enter any of the leading professions.

Also a Theological course of lectures is delivered in the College.

Corporation of the College of St. Boniface.—His Grace the Most Rev. A. Tache, Archbishop of St. Boniface; Rev. A. A. Cherrier, B.S., Principal; Rev. G. Dugast, Rev. J. T. Lavoie, O.M.I.; Rev. Joseph McCarthy, O.M.I.; Kev. J. Doucet and Rev. G. Cloutier.

Faculty.—Rev. A. A. Cherrier, B.S., Professor of Divinity and general superintendent of studies; Rev. Gabriel Cloutier, Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy, Higher Mathematics and Natural Sciences; Rev. Jos. Messiers, Professor of French Literature; Rev. N. Jutras, and Rev. T. Campeau, Professors of Classics and Modern Languages; Messrs. Remi Meloche and A. H. Morin, Professors of English Literature and English Commercial course; Assistant Teachers—Rev. T. L. Rene, Messrs. J. O. Barrett and A. Berube.

Prefects of Discipline.—Rev. H. Carrieres, Rev. T. Campeau, A. H. Morin; Rev. Julien Doucet, bursar and steward.

His Grace Archbishop Tache, in addition to building the College, has founded several scholarships in favor of promising students. His Excellency the Governor General of Canada grants yearly a medal of honor to the most successful student in Greek.

The Collegiate year comprises two terms, the first beginning in August, and the second in February.

ST. BONIFACE BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

This Institution, under the management of the Sisters of Charity, is calculated to give a refined education to girls and young ladies. Instruction is given in English, French, music, drawing, plain and fancy needle-work, and in everything required for a complete female education.

Rev. Sister Royal, Directress ; and the Rev. Sisters Dunn (Mary Xavier), McDougal, Desnoyers, Bourassa, Truteau, Brouillet and Samson, are in charge of the different departments. The school is pleasantly situated on the bank of the Red River, and has a very successful career of thirty-six years.

CHARITABLE ESTABLISHMENTS OF ST. BONIFACE.

The Charitable works of the Sisters of St. Boniface comprise four different departments, viz :

ORPHANAGE.

For little girls, who receive the kindest treatment and most useful training from Rev. Sisters Boire and Derome.

THE REFUGE.

For Invalids, who are under the care of Rev. Sister Cusson.

THE VISITATION OF THE SICK.

In this very commendable and philanthropic work which they discharge, their charity is not confined within the limits of St. Boniface, but many families in Winnipeg have to thank the Sisters for their kind attention in time of need.

ST. BONIFACE HOSPITAL.

The Sisters of St. Boniface have an hospital for curable patients, and its eleven beds are almost constantly occupied by the sick of different creeds and nationalities. Rev. Sister Cleary is at the head of this department, assisted by Rev. Sister St. Ann, and when necessary, by other members of the Sisterhood.

CHURCH OF ST. BONIFACE.

The first place of worship built in the country was erected by Rev. J. N. Provencher, at St. Boniface, in 1818. It was a very modest wooden structure, and was replaced five years later by a chapel in a more suitable form. In 1830 the Right Rev. J. N. Provencher, founder of St. Boniface Mission, who had eight years previously been raised to Episcopal dignity, began the construction of the first stone church, the fine Cathedral which was, in 1860, destroyed by fire.

The present cathedral was erected by Archbishop Tache. It was completed during the summer of 1882. The church is of stone, the front being of white cut-stone, and with its fine new steeple presents quite a majestic appearance. The interior, though plain, is of good design and pleasing aspect. There is in the Cathedral of St. Boniface a superb pipe organ of 24 stops, two manuals and one pedal. One is surprised at seeing such an instrument introduced into the country before there were railway facilities, and it ought to be so much the more gratifying to the people of St. Boniface, as it is a present to their devoted Archbishop from his friends of the Province of Quebec. The organ was built by Mr. Mitchell of Montreal.

Near the Cathedral is the Archbishop's palace, with a beautiful grove of trees, and tastily laid-out grounds surrounding. The personnel of the palace, along with His Grace the Archbishop, are :—The very Rev. J. Tissot, V.G., O.M.I., Rev. A. Maisonneuve, O.M.I., commissary for the Bishops of the North West; Rev. George Dugast, Rev. J. McCarthy, O.M.I., Rev. J. B. Dufresne. And as His Grace gives hospitably to not only the sick clergy of his Archdiocese but to those of the whole Province, two missionaries from the North-West are now sharing this hospitality, viz.: Rev. Z. Gascon, O.M.I. and Rev. J. Legoff, O.M.I.

WITH PLAIN OR SECTIONAL BOILER if so ordered. We are testing an Engine every day. Intending purchasers are invited to call at our Works and thoroughly examine the Champion. We use KRUPP'S CELEBRATED BOILER PLATE, Every plate tested. Every boiler tested to 160 pounds, cold water pressure.

OVER 600 SOLD in 5 seasons. The favorite everywhere. It has no equal.

The sectional safety boiler is manufactured expressly for the "North West" trade. This boiler is so arranged that it is readily taken apart in sections enabling purchasers to clean thoroughly every part of it and prevent burning out. We know from experience this is absolutely necessary with the alkaline waters of the great Western prairies. Largely used by the Pacific Railway Company and all the large Colonization and Ranche Companies.
